

REQUIREMENTS GATHERING

4 areas to consider as you gather Business Requirements in a virtual work environment.

Things have changed for your ORGANIZATION.

Are your past requirements still relevant? Do they address any newly emerging needs?

Things have changed for your CUSTOMERS.

Are you addressing the need for online access points and portals for your customers?

Things have changed for your TEAMS.

Are your teams being engaged to document new needs and requirements?

Things have changed for your PROCESSES.

Are you embedding collaboration tools and features into your processes to optimize workflows?
